Before you start (30 seconds)

Open MARGIN (or a notes page). Have last week's card activity nearby — not a full budget rebuild.

1. Add new charges (3 min)

- ☐ Wrote each new charge with name + amount + cadence
- ☐ Marked verdict: Keep · Review · Cut

2. Kill one Cut (4 min)

One cut creates room. A list of intentions does not.

- ☐ Chose one Cut to cancel or pause this week
- ☐ Actually canceled / paused it (email, app, phone)
- ☐ Removed it from the list or left a done note

3. Look at minus 20% income once (2 min)

If take-home dropped ~20% for 90 days, what would still fit? Glance only — no spiral.

- ☐ Glanced at that picture (paid instrument: Income change -20%)
- ☐ Noted one bill that would need a conversation

4. Close the tab (1 min)

- ☐ Exported JSON backup if something important changed
- ☐ Closed the tab. Ritual over until next payday / Sunday.

What this is not

Not a full budget overhaul. Not debt counseling. Not bank sync.
If you cannot cover essentials, contact a nonprofit credit counselor.
Do not use this ritual as a substitute for crisis help.
